Means, Editors.—
The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia R. Pinkham, of Lyun, Mass, who above all other homan beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call ther. Bhe is acalously devoted to hier work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondense which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at preasas from R. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not seel purposes. I have personally investigated it and can attimed of the truth of this.
On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and preacribed by the best physicians in the country. One says, "It works like a charm and saves much of the universal success of Brown's fron Bitters is simply this: It is the best Iron preparation ever made; is compounded on thoroughly scientific, chemical and medicinal principles, and does just what is claimed for it-no more and no less.

By thorough and rapid assimilation with the blood, it reaches every part of the system, healing, purifying and strengthening. Commencing at the foundation it builds up and restores lost health-in no other way can lasting benefit be obtained.

79 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, Nov. 7.

I have been a great sufferer from a very weak stomach, heartburn, and dyspepala in its worst form. Nearly everything I ais gave me distress, and I could eat but little. I have tried everything recommended, have taken the prescriptions of a dozen physicians, but got no relief until I took Brown's Iron Bitters. I feel more of the old troubles, and am a new man. I am getting much stronger, and feel first-raic. I am a railroad engineer, and now make my trips regularly. I can not say too much in praise of your wonderful medicine.

D. C. Mack.

Brown's Iron Bitters does not contain whiskey or alcohol, and will not blacken the teeth, or cause headache and constipation. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, dizziness, nervous debility, weakness, &c.

Use only Brown's Iron Bitters made by Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore, Crossed red lines and trade-mark on wrapper.
